

1. Introduction:- The Knowledge of Grammar is the essential part of language teaching. It's impossible to use correct form of any language in the absence of proper knowledge of grammar. It's a fact that knowledge of grammar acquired in the early stage of life has a long lasting effect in case the knowledge is wrong. It is difficult to correct. It is better to improve knowledge of English Grammar structure, Knowledge of correct pronunciation $\frac{1}{4}$ pronunciation place $\frac{1}{2}$ of words, hand-writing and spellings. Thus the researcher wants to diagnose the grammatical errors of English language at secondary level of Rajasthan State Board school. The depth of knowledge of pronunciation of English words is very complicated as well as in the study of English language. His awareness of pronunciation is adequate although. There is an English teacher in all the Indian Universities and Hindi area schools, non – Hindi area schools, now it becomes the duty of all the Educationists related to English language to make collective efforts to eliminate incorrect form with regard pronunciation and spellings. In the educational process language serves as a Back Bone. Language teaching and learning play the most important role in the overall development of an individual. The above should be kept in mind while preparing the syllabus of any language. There is only one objective of a language, that is to make dialogue or communication easy and with the help of language a human being can express his thoughts orally and in writing. The only real bases of a language is thought and on the other side the real basis of curriculum is language. Without language a curriculum is just like a dead object. A student can not learn a syllabus without language. Expression does not have its own contents. It's very important to correct the writing and vocal errors of the students through Grammar.

This study aimed at investigating the effect of using an instructional software program of English language on the achievement of secondary students in Jordan. The sample of the study consisted of (212) students distributed randomly on four experimental groups and four control groups. The instruments of the study were an instructional software program for teaching the passive voice and an achievement test. An Analysis of covariance was used to find out the effect of the instructional program on the students' achievement in the passive voice. The findings of the study revealed that: 1. the A DIAGNOSTIC TEST: Features of discourse. Circle the better option (a or b) for each space (1-7) in the text. Both options are grammatically correct; choose the most appropriate in the context. In English, we can show which part of a sentence or clause contains the most important point or "focus" by moving the important point to the beginning or end of the sentence " these are the two positions which appear most important to a reader or listener. In this example Jim and nightclub are the focus " they seem the most important issues: Jim invited Lucy to the nightclub. We sometimes need to break the principles of word order to create effects of emphasis and contrast. Because word order in English is usually fixed, we can emphasise something by moving it to an unfamiliar position. Tests in grammar may involve: filling in the blanks; opening the brackets; transformation (make it negative, put questions); extension; completion; making statements on the pictures given; translation. Advanced English Grammar is an online lesson plan featuring quizzes and lectures to help you teach your students all the elements of good grammar. In lessons where you are not incorporating some sort of game, it is beneficial to consider inductive teaching. If students cannot understand grammar, they will struggle to read, write or speak clearly in any other area of education, from maths and science to history or geography. What we need is simplest and shortest grammar that meets the requirements of the school syllabus in foreign languages. Categories English Grammar Tests. Post navigation.
