However, as of 2012[update], blank cassettes were still being produced and are still sold at some retail stores, while facilities for cassette duplication remain available. In 1962, Philips invented the Compact Cassette medium for audio storage, introducing it in Europe on 30 August 1963 (at the Berlin Radio Show), and in the United States (under the Norelco brand) in November 1964, with the trademark name Compact Cassette. The team at Philips was led by Lou Ottens in Hasselt, Belgium. Although there were other magnetic tape cartridge systems, Philips' Compact Cassette became dominant as a result of Philips' decision in the face of pressure from Sony to license the format free of charge. Branded Audio Cassettes. Nearly all of these branded tapes from leading names such as Sony, Memorex, TDK, Maxell, Fuji and That's were made in the '80s or '90s and went out of production quite a long time ago. They are therefore becoming quite rare, particularly unused in their original outer wraps. GoTape winds blank audio cassettes of desired length and does audio cassette duplication. You can choose tape length (up to 90 minutes), colour of tapes and boxes, order covers, stickers and printing on the cassette shell. For compilations and box sets we offer double and triple cassette boxes. We are located in St. Petersburg, Russia, and deliver orders via Russian Post. The price list can be found here. Calculator.
